

Henry Meng

Rotating President, Great Wall Motor

Mr. Henry Meng joined Great Wall Motor in 2003 and has been with GWM for 17 years. He has successively held important positions in various fields since he joined. Mr. Henry Meng is a pragmatic, intelligent and responsible person.

With many years' experience and management of work, he has been able to develop himself outstandingly and grew into a managerial talent of the company. Mr. Henry Meng was promoted as the Vice president of GWM in 2019. He has been in charge of core business areas such as Production Engineering, Business Operation Management, Enterprise Digitalization and Business Flow Management. He has played important roles in the overall operation and management of GWM and the transformation of creating "Combat Units".

Since September 2020, he served as the first rotating president of GWM, Co-ordinating the management of vehicle business and practically promote the internal transformation of the GWM, forming and managing the "Combat Units" to face consumers, face market and face competition and integrate re sources, to achieve the benefit sharing, responsibility sharing, aiming to bring the users more surprise and create value for society.